Blacks, and Send Them Back, TOWER HILL, ILL, September 30 .-Three hundred striking union miners Pana to-day held up a special Baltimore and Ohio Southwestern train, conveying fifty Washington (Ind.) negro miners to Pana, to take the place of union miners. The negroes were taken from the cars and compelled to walk back to Tower Hill, where they were in the depot until 10 o'clock tonight. At that hour the negroes were placed on board an east-bound train and taken back to Indiana, at the ex-

These two lads met at 105 pounds, and put up a bout which was one of the livellest and clever-est contests which have taken place in this arena. After more than two hours' discussion the synod declined to make the transfer.

At 11 o'clock the synod had so much business on hand that the preaching service was held in the Methodist church, and Rev. Thornton Whaling, D. D., of Lexington, preached a very able sermon from Matthew 9, 36: "When he saw the multitudes he was moved with compassion."

AFTERNOON SESSION.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

At the afternoon session the report of the Committee on the Bible Cause was presented and adopted. In connection with this, Rev. W. S. Campbell, the secretary of the Bible Society of Virginia, spoke on the work of that society. Last year 172 churches out of 448 gave to this cause $1,351—an increase of $98 over the preceding year. Of this amount the Pres-byterians of the State of Virginia gave 81,233. The Bible Society of Virginia re-ceived from all denominations $2,902, and out into circulation 12.229 copies of God's Word. Much, Mr. Campbell said, has been done in supplying destitute families and individuals and the inmates of the risons of the State. Nearly 6,000 pocket estaments were given to the soldiers re-ently encamped in the State.

The report on Union Theological Semi-nary, which has been removed to Richtion of affairs in this institution, and less than ten minutes, notwithstanding of eminent gifts and finess; the second that the usual restricted nearth, but quite suddenly he was stricken down and in less than ten minutes, notwithstanding that the usual restricted nearth, but quite of the seminary to Richmond makes an era in the history of the synod. By the liberality of friends of the institution buildings have been erected on the new site at a cost of $131,569.85." Rev. S. Martin, Rev. S. B. Johnston, and Mr. H. Bradley Davidson were elected trustees of this institution.

The report of the Committee on Colored Evangelization speaks of this as "still the neglected cause." All ministers of the synod are solemnly enjoined to preach boldly the claims of this work. In connection with the annual collection contributions for this cause were $3,065.

The report of the Committee on Publication shows how much is being done in aiding Sunday schools and the work of colportage, but calls attention to the need of enlarged contributions for the increase and extension of this work. Contributions were $1,920. The report on Sabbath schools recom mends that these schools take up collec tions for all benevolent causes when prac-ticable, and that pastors and superinten-dents use great care in the selection of teachers, both as to their character and of schools reported is 275; teachers, 3,860 scholars, 27,493; contributions, $14,644. STATE OF RELIGION.

The narrative of the state of religion calls attention to the fact that almost all in worshipping the Lord with their sub-stance, but states that there is a grow-ing tendency to desecrate the Sabbath. On the whole, the report is encouraging During the afternoon, Governor Tyle had to leave to return to Richmond, and asked Dr. Fleming, of Lynchburg, to take his place as moderator of the synod. The synod has been very much pleased with the efficient way in which the Governor of Virginia presided over its sessions. At the evening session, by special in-vitation, Judge B. F. Hutton, of Abingdon, delivered an address on "The In-fluence of the Doctrines of the Westminster Assembly on Civil and Religious Lib erty." This was an address of re-markable ability and historial interest No report can give an idea of it. The Judge showed from official publications that the first Declaration of Independence was written by Rev. Charles Cummings—the Fincastle Declaration—and adopted by the freeholders of the community, who were all Presbyterlans, January 25, 1775, four months before Mecklenburg Declaration, which was also made by Presbyterians. On February 22d, in the same year, the freeholders of the then Presbyterian county of the then Presbyterian co Augusta adopted resolutions against the King. This paper was writ-ten by Rev. Alexander Baldmain, a Pres-byterian preacher. Simflar resolutions were adopted by the Presbyterians of Botetourt and other counties on or about March 20th of the same year. Of the six colonels in the battle of King's Mountain every one was a Presbyterian elder.

CREDIT TO OTHERS. While giving full credit to other church-es for all they have done in this cause the speaker showed from impartial wit nesses that no people have done as much to bring about and maintain civil and religious liberty in this country as the Probyterians. For more than an hour a three-quarters Judge Hutton held the rapt attention of the large audience filled every seat in the house.

Memorials of the following deceased ministers were read by committees apministers were read by committees appointed for that purpose: Rev. J. D. Thomas, Rev. J. C. Dinwiddie, Rev. F. McMurray, and Rev. T. S. Ewing, D. D. That of Rev. J. R. Crews not being ready, was postponed until next meeting. Rev. W. S. Campbell introduced a paper

General says of newspaper attacks upon him:

"The attacks of the yellow press upon me and others of the administration are simply outrageous. The articles are filled with untruths. The behavior of some of the yellow journalists was so outrageous before we even got into Cuba that I had to put my hand on them, and after we got into Cuba it was still worse. Their letters are the result of personal spite. If I had come back with a defeated army there might have been some excuse for their talk, but having commanded one of the most successful campaigns of modern military history, it is simply an outrage.

"I am very fond of Evans (Pension Commissioner), and am very glad that you are defending him. Some of the Grand Army of the Republic are simply unbearable, and seem to think if they can't have the Treasury turned over to them, they are being defrauded.

WASHINGTON, D. C., September 30 .-(Special.)-General Fitzhugh Lee had a great many callers this morning at the Shoreham, among them several Virginians residing here, and a dozen or more newspaper men. All of the latter wanted to know when he would go to Habana, and when he would open his canvass for the United States Senate. To nearly all he replied that he would go to Cuba when ordered to do so, and that the senatorial election was too far off for him to say exactly when he would begin the canvass, but that he was in the field, and in the hands of his friends. He went to the War Department about 10 o'clock, and received quite an ovation there from army and navy officers and officials generally, including many ladies, none of the latter, however, insisting on kissing him, as they did Schley. The General was closeted for nearly an hour with the Secretary of War, after which he went to the White House and had an extended interview with the President. At 3 P. M. he had another conference with the Secretary of War and General Miles, but as to what took place General Lee declined to say, GENERAL LEE'S PLANS.

BRILLIANT YOUNG MUSICIANS.

Exceptional Talent Displayed by Miss Ryan and Young Powell.

Miss Annie Louise Reinhardt will play several brilliant violin solos at the Woman's Club next Monday evening. She will leave for New York the latter part of October to resume her musical studies under Herr Schradieck, who is, by common consent, the finest teacher of the woln consent, the meet teacher of the violin in the world to-day. Miss Reinhardt, at the age of 18, is an artist of high attainments, With two or three more years of application in Schradicek's studio she will be in the front rank of virtuosi.

Richmond has produced many excellent musicians. No city of its size can boast of so many scholarly musical instructors as Richmond. Next to Sousa, the of so many scholarly musical instructors as Richmond. Next to Sousa, the "March King." the most popular march writer in the United States is a native and citizen of this city—Mr. George Voelker. Rembrandt, Hahr, and Baseler have composed much good music. But there are two young persons here who will, it is predicted by conservative critics, shed more lustre on Richmond musically than any who have distinguished themselves hitherto—Miss Reinhardt and Master John H. Powell, Jr., the pianist and composer—playmates from earliest childhood. Each has the gift of a musical soul in a pre-eminent depianist and composer—playmates from earliest childhood. Each has the gift of a musical soul in a pre-eminent degree, and each has the passion for intelligent development. Powell was a prodigy in his infancy. He played the pianoforte and composed classic music before he had dropped skirts for breeches, and the best part about it is he has developed wholesomely, according to the best aestitetic canons. Even now, at the age of 16, he composes and executes on the piano like a matured artist. He is indeed a genius, and suggests the youthful Mozart, or Mendelsshon. On last Tuesday evening at an informal musicale at Professor Reinhardt's, Master Poweil and Miss Reinhardt played exquisitely a duet for piano and violin, written by the former. Many amateurs "compose" and publish heir compositions, but before these see their compositions, but before these see the light, they have been "fixed up" by musicians who know the musical grammar as thoroughly as they know A. B. C. But when Master Powell writes music, he does it without assistance. He is a pupil in piano playing and musical theory of Mr. Hahr's. Dr. Hoge to Preach To-Morrow.

MANDAMUS CASE AGAINST GAGE.

They Grow Out of War-Bond Issue Carlisle Brings Them.

WASHINGTON, September 30, -- Two mandamus cases were filed to-day in the Supreme Court against Secretary Lyman J. Gage, growing out of the issue of bonds to carry on the war. In the first case, William H. Warton, of Jersey City, sets up that he was a subscriber for $520 of the bonds. He empowered the Produce-Exchange Trust Company, of New York, to make the necessary advancements on the bonds, holding them as collateral. Thereafter Secretary Gage refused to make this allotment of bonds, on the ground, it is understood, that the sub-scription was not bona fide, but was made in the interest of a third party.

The second suit is instituted by George B. Wightman, and seeks to restrain Sec-retary Gage from setting aside the award of many small lots of bonds, aggregating $335,340, which were to be handled through the Produce-Exchange Trust Company. The court fixed the hearing for October
